TRANSFER OF YOUR INFORMATION OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (EEA)

- 16. This privacy notice is of general application and as such it is not possible to state whether it will be necessary to transfer your information out of the EEA in any particular case or for a reference. However, if you reside outside the EEA or your case or the role for which you require a reference involves persons or organisations or courts and tribunals outside the EEA then it may be necessary to transfer some of your data to that country outside of the EEA for that purpose. If you are in a country outside the EEA or if the instructions you provide come from outside the EEA then it is inevitable that information will be transferred to those countries. If this applies to you and you wish additional precautions to be taken in respect of your information please indicate this when providing initial instructions.
- 17. Some countries and organisations outside the EEA have been assessed by the European Commission and their data protection laws and procedures found to provide adequate protection. The list can be found here https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en#dataprotectionincountriesoutsidetheeu . Most do not. If your information has to be transferred outside the EEA, then it may not have the same protections and you may not have the same rights as you would within the EEA.

The USA does not have the same data protection laws as the EU but the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield has been recognised by the European Commission as providing adequate protection. To obtain further details of that protection see https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/eu-us-privacy-shield_en.

HOW LONG WILL I STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

19. I will normally store all your information for a period of 1 year after the expiry of 15 years from the date of the last item of work carried out, the date of the last payment received or the date on which all outstanding payments are written off, whichever is the latest. This is because it may be needed for potential legal proceedings, regulatory matters, complaints or similar. This is pursuant to the advice of my professional indemnity insurers, The Bar Mutual Indemnity Fund, who state that:

“Our preference is for documents to be retained for 15 years as this is the long-stop period under the Limitation Act”

20. However, the period may be longer where:
- 20.1. the case includes information relating to a minor;
 - 20.2. the case involved an order which remains effective (e.g. an injunction or undertakings to the court and/or is subject to a penal notice);
 - 20.3. the case relates to matters which could possibly give rise to a complaint or action against me for which the limitation period may not start to run from very considerably after the end of any case or proceedings (including but not limited to any case with deferred payments, ongoing maintenance, the drafting of a pre-nuptial agreement, variation of any settlement, pension related matters or provision in respect of or upon death of a relevant party or individual)
21. At the end of the period of retention, further retention will be reviewed and the data will be marked for deletion or marked for retention for a further period. The latter retention period is likely to occur only where the information is or may be needed for legal proceedings, regulatory matters or active complaints. Deletion will be carried out (without further notice to you) as soon as reasonably practicable after the data is marked for deletion.
22. I will store some of your information which I need to carry out conflict checks for the rest of my career. However, this is likely to be limited to your name and contact details, the name of the case, the identity of involved solicitors and outline information in relating to the case or instruction. This will not include any Special Category Information
23. Names and contact details held for marketing purposes will be stored indefinitely or until I or my clerks become aware or are informed that the individual has ceased to be a potential client.
24. Information related to anti-money laundering checks will be retained until five years after the completion of the transaction or the end of the business relationship, whichever is the later.
25. If you are an applicant to Chambers for pupillage, a work-shadowing opportunity or for a tenancy, your data will be stored in line with the Chambers pupillage and recruitment policies.
26. If you are an established practitioner applying for tenancy, I may store your data for a period of 3 years (to assist with Chambers’ administration), save where you are a successful applicant in which case the data will be stored indefinitely.

27. If your data is held by me as a result of my position on the Chambers' Management Committee, I will hold your data in line with Chambers' Privacy Policy.

SECURITY MEASURES

28. Publication of details about my security arrangements would risk their compromise, but my accounts, equipment, premises (chambers and domestic) and records are all backed-up, encrypted, locked or secured, password-protected, secured and/or subject to anti-virus and firewall protection as appropriate and having regard to Bar Council guidance on IT issues.
29. Furthermore, where my chambers act as a data processor on my behalf it does so in with GDPR-compliant constitutional, contractual, technical and organisational arrangements, policies and procedures and subject to guarantees and obligations of confidentiality. In this regard, the clerks and staff in my chambers and my chambers' IT support staff provide me with assistance and support and communicate and liaise with others on my behalf and I also use my chambers' IT systems, including email servers, fee, diary, practice-management and record-keeping software, internet and intranet, network and other shared drives and servers.

31. You have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, but this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing activity I have carried out prior to you withdrawing your consent. However, where I also rely on other bases for processing your information, you may not be able to prevent processing of your data. For example, if you have asked me to work for you and I have spent time on your case, you may owe me money which I will be entitled to claim.
32. If there is an issue with the processing of your information, please contact my clerks using the contact details below.
